

Application number:
Client number:

C/-Paulo Kundig
The Immigration Law Firm
P O Box 2684
Christchurch

Dear :

Application for a visitor visa for:

Applicant:

Date of birth:

Thank you for your application for a visitor visa. We received the application on 29 May 2012.

Our decision on your application

I am pleased to tell you that we have approved your application for a New Zealand visitor visa.

Your visa

A visa has been granted to allow to visit New Zealand until 30 May 2014.

Travel Conditions

Your visitor visa includes travel conditions which allow you to re-enter New Zealand as many times as you like until 30 May 2014.

If you depart New Zealand and intend to return after 30 May 2014 you will need to apply to Immigration New Zealand for a new visa.

Entry permission

Entry to New Zealand is subject to the grant of entry permission at the border.

Renewing your visa

A visitor visa allows you to stay in New Zealand for no more than nine months in the 18-month period before the proposed expiry date of the visa. You may apply to renew your visa for up to 12 months from the date you arrived in New Zealand if you:

- are a genuine tourist
- have not applied for another type of visa during your stay
- are not a sponsored visitor
- have applied for a New Zealand residence class visa for the first time.

Working and studying in New Zealand

You will need to apply to Immigration New Zealand for a work visa if you wish to work during your stay in New Zealand.

While on your visitor visa, you may undertake one or more courses of study or training of not more than three calendar months duration in total (or in each 12 month period if the visa stay conditions are for a minimum of 24 months).

Liability for deportation and appeal rights

You must hold a valid visa at all times and depart New Zealand before it expires. If you remain after it expires you will be in New Zealand unlawfully; you will then be liable for deportation. If you are deported from New Zealand, you will be unable to return until the end of any prohibition period and have paid any costs of your deportation. If you are in New Zealand unlawfully and depart voluntarily you may still be deemed to be deported, but you will not be subject to any prohibition period.

If you wish to appeal against your liability for deportation, you may do so on humanitarian grounds no later than 42 days after first being in New Zealand unlawfully. Further information on how to appeal to the Immigration and Protection Tribunal is available on its website: www.justice.govt.nz/tribunals/ipt

Your documents

Make sure you keep your documents and this letter in a safe place for future reference. Please note that we do not return copies of the documents you send to us or original medical certificates.

Contact us

If you have any questions, you can:

- call our Immigration Contact Centre on 0508 55 88 55 or (64) 9 914 4100 (operator available 7am - 7pm NZ time)
- find answers to frequently asked questions or lodge an email enquiry online at www.immigration.govt.nz/help

You will need to tell us your application and client numbers (see the top of this letter). Please be ready to quote them when you phone.

Yours sincerely

Alexis Cogle
Immigration Officer
Immigration New Zealand